Mr. Riley is all smiles since he no longer has to write lesson plans since becoming the new Assistant Principal.

Amber Ramos and Amy Coleman find various activities to do during their time as office aides.

Office, Library and Guidance

It took a lot of work to keep P.C.H.S. running smoothly. The hard-working staff in the office, library, and guidance positions worked with students every day. Mrs. Pritt and Mrs. Rao stayed busy filling out pink slips, answering the phone, and nagging students about their lunch bills. Ms. Chappell spent her days helping students find and check out books, monitoring the use of computers, and just helping students in general. Mrs. Beverage was always moving at the speed of light. She spent her time helping seniors prepare for college and other future plans. She made sure students had information about the dreaded SAT's and ACT's. When needed, she gave her helpful advice to students. Mr. Sanders and Mr. Riley were difficult to find because of their busy schedules. They spent their days keeping everyone in line and making sure the school stayed safe.

Kayla Ramsey and Jeffrey Fertig are using the library's mobile lab to do their French work.

Sophomores

The class of 2009 entered the sophomore phase with a year of high school experience. They had miraculously gotten through the grueling freshman year and were fully equipped with the mechanics of high school, from cliques to cafeteria food. Once the officers were elected, they began fund-raising in need of money for next year's Prom. They prepared for the Westest, an annual event in the sophomore year. With their clusters and majors declared, they were one step closer to graduating.

Tina, I am overcome with so much shock and sadness today. My heart is breaking for you, your family and your beautiful daughter Kayla. She truly was a an amazing young woman who made me smile, laugh and think about a lot of things. Although I have known her for years, I only recently got to experience knowing her on a personal level and am so grateful I had that opportunity. She was so proud of you, Tina and she talked about you with admiration every day. I love you and am here for you anytime, day or night. Prayers for strength to get everyone through this tragic event.
